

(<http://www.arunachaltimes.in/wordpress/2015/03/14/lohit-library-annual-awards-2015/>)

Lohit Library annual awards 2015

March 14, 2015

ITANAGAR, Mar 13: Purabi Nath and Dileep Chetri, both students of Govt. Hr Sec School, Tezu, shared this year's Bhajan Award for their dedicated services to Bamboosa Library for the last 6 years and for extending library services to the public of Tezu.

Purabi, Class XI has been one of the first regular library readers and activists, while Dileep, Class X, has been a dedicated volunteer for the last 6 years.

This is the second year of the Bhajan Award set up by a patron of the Libraries from Thiruvananthapuram, Kerala, in memory of his pious parents. The duo shared Rs.8000 cash award.

Bethem Marai, a Class X student of Govt. Sec. School Wakro, got the first Ranganatha Award, for the Best library volunteer for her committed care and services to APNE library during the last 3 years.

Asuni Khamlai and Lakshmi Ngadong, both class VIII students of Kasturba Gandhi Balika Vidyalaya, Wakro have been declared outstanding library activists of the year.

Besunlu Mepong, Class X, GSS, Wakro, has been awarded for promoting Mishmi language in library programmes, while Laxmi Ngadong and Achila Ngadong were awarded prizes for their roles in Mishmi language skits.

Abhinav Dwivedi, Ashish Mishra and Ashish Singh (CI XII) of Govt Hr Sec School, Tezu have been conferred a Decoration for their outstanding contribution in popularizing Bamboosa Library and reading campaign. In all, 29 activists and readers of Bamboosa and APNE libraries have been awarded this year, for their active involvement in the reading campaign, skit enacting and creative writing and painting.

The awards set up with contributions from patrons carry a certificate, books and magazine annual subscriptions.