

<http://www.arunachaltimes.in/mini-book-fair-at-roing/> Jan 17, 2017

ROING, Jan 16: A three-day long Mini Book Fair participated by over 400 students, teachers, library-activists was jointly organized by Essomi Foundation and Lohit Youth Library Network under the aegis of the district Education department at the Parade ground here on Thursday last.

Speaking on the occasion Lower Dibang Valley DC, Deepak Shinde advised the teachers and parents to make every effort to stimulate reading habits among the youth. While lauding the Essomi Foundation and Lohit Youth Library Network for taking the initiative to hold a book exhibition promoting reading activities in Roing, the DC hoped the people of Roing will enthusiastically join hands to spread the joy of reading.

Later, during the valedictory session of the Book Fair on Sunday last, Roing ADC, Cheshta Yadav appealed to the school incharges and teachers to include a weekly session of free library reading, book talks and creative writing.

RIWATCH, Roing, Executive Director, Vijay Swami and Essomi Foundation, Organizing Secretary, Lomi Linggi also spoke on the occasion.

www.thedawnlitpost.com/mini-book-fair-at-roing-concluded/ Jan 17, 2017