

ECHO OF ARUNACHAL

An effort to pay honour to a saintly mother

TEZU, Dec 4: In a simple function, community elder Jahilu Chai cast the first brick for the Arya Library at her residence today.

The Arya Library named in gratitude to saintly mother M S Arya of Kerala will be the nerve centre for Lohit Youth Libraries and will function from Tezu to assist Apne Library, Bamboosa Library and other units of the Youth Library Network, spearheaded by Satyanarayanan Mundayoor.

Sujan Krisikro Chai, CDPO Tezu, community worker Bajailu Chaitom, VKVian Sochiem Ngadong, Bamboosa library activists Okesi Tayang, Banika Kri, Nishanlu Kri, Kishalu Kri and Amit Kumar joined Jahilu in the service of casting the first brick for Arya Library.

Jahilu Chai and Sujan Krisikro Chai conveying their respects to mother Arya today on her 96th birthday exhorted the youth to draw inspiration from the saintly mother, who continues to bless and support the activities of social welfare in distant Arunachal from Thrissur in Kerala.

The spirited mother is source of great strength and support to all of us in Arunachal
